Box 1561, Dublin, OH 43017

November 2012

MEETING

When: 7 p.m., Nov. 21
Where: Oakstone Acade

ere: Oakstone Academy 900 Club Dr., Westerville

Topic: Charge coins Speaker: Maric Gibbs

November presentation

Before credit cards, stores issued their own charge coins. The individually numbered pieces were generally issued between the world wars.

Marie Gibbs is going to shed some light on this littleknown area of collecting.

October presentation

Steve Petty gave a tremendous presentation on the rare, inexpensive and incredibly detailed Wiener cathedral medals.

These 19th century 50 mm medals are famous the world over for the engraver's skill in depieting the great depth of the interior of European eathedrals, with their row upon row of arches, in realistic detail.

Steve showed a series of blowups of the medals. Each photo showed yet more detail, seemingly without end.

Steve said only a couple hundred of each of the 41 medals in the series were stuck, and prices tend to run in the $200 to $300 range.
